

ServeNoMaster 087: Ten Ways To Make A Killing With A 3D Printer

Subtitle: Carve Out Your Own Niche

Key Takeaways:

- [2:40] - The exciting thing about 3D printing is that it is print on demand.
- [3:50] - Opportunity 1: Setup a store on Shapeways or any online platform and sell directly.
- [4:28] - Opportunity 2: Offer 3D printing as a service for people in your area who needs it.
- [5:50] - Opportunity 3: Become a teacher for 3D printing by teaching how to create designs for it.
- [6:12] - Opportunity 4: Create a shop where shoppers can design and print their own gift.
- [6:57] - Opportunity 5: Allow architects to print models of their house plans.
- [8:14] - Opportunity 6: Rent out a 3D printer.
- [8:59] - Opportunity 7: Create a bobble heads with 3D printers.
- [9:18] - You can buy a cheaper 3D printer then use the revenues to buy a bigger machine.
- [10:00] - Opportunity 8: Sell templates of things you create.
- [10:45] - Opportunity 9: Create version 1 of a designer's product.
- [12:30] - Think outside the box and of ways to leverage the things around you.
- [12:40] - If you don't have a 3D printer, find someone who has one lying around and use it.
- [15:10] - Opportunity 10: Provide ways for designers to test their design at a low-cost level.
- [18:40] - Barriers to entry for 3D printing has become lower.

Resources:

Etsy – <https://www.etsy.com/>

Shapeways - www.shapeways.com/

Sponsor FreshBooks – <https://servenomaster.com/socialpilot>