

ServeNoMaster 152: How to Write a Book in a Flash

Highlights:

[1:50] You don't have to dictate every book you write in order to write faster. This can lead to errors if you use an automated transcription tool.

[2:55] You can hire a human being to transcribe using Outsourcecely. This leads to lesser errors.

[6:53] Another tool: Dragon Dictate – but you need to dictate your punctuation also.

[7:25] Trint – more expensive but can generate a good transcript with good punctuations

How to become faster writer

[9:58] Always think about the future.

[10:58] Have a real paper and pen notebook to write down ideas.

[14:20] Do research in advance before you start writing
